

PERSONAL INFORMATION

First Name	Juan Pablo
Last Name	Jiménez
Current Position and Affiliation	Economic Affairs Officer, Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC) Adjunct Professor of International and Public Affairs, Columbia University
Research interests	Economic development, public finance, fiscal policy, decentralization
Main Recent Publications	Books Macroeconomic Policies in times of crisis: options and perspectives (co-editor with O. Kacef and author of Chapters 2 and 3), 2009, ECLAC. Rigideces y Espacios Fiscales en América Latina (co-editor with O. Cetrángolo and author of Chapter 1), 2009, ECLAC. Evasión y Equidad en América Latina (co-editor with J.C. Gómez Sabaini and A. Podestá and author of Chapter 1), 2009, ECLAC. Articles Jiménez, J.P. (2010) “Política fiscal y crisis en América Latina”, Revista Asturiana de Economía, forthcoming. Jiménez, J.P. y Lorenzo, F. (2010) “Los cambios en el FMI y el impacto en su relación con América Latina” Revista Pensamiento Iberoamericano, Número 6, AECID/Fundación Carolina. Gómez Sabaini, J.C., Jiménez, J. P, y Podestá, A. (2010) “ Tax gap and equity in Latin America and the Caribbean” Fiscal Studies No 16, GTZ. Cetrángolo, O.; Jiménez, J.P. y Ruiz del Castillo, R. (2009), “Rigidities and fiscal space in Latin America: a comparative case study”, Serie Macroeconomía del Desarrollo 97, ECLAC Jiménez, J.P. y Podestá, A. (2009) “Las relaciones fiscales intergubernamentales y las finanzas subnacionales ante la crisis”, LC/R.2155, ECLAC
Research Work currently in progress	Macroeconomic volatility, economics of natural resources, fiscal sustainability, fiscal space, decentralization, tax assignment.
Personal webpage
Date	August 30, 2010